Programs and Workshops

By Susan Palmer

Welcome to the Lake Quilters' Guild 2010. I was new to sewing and quilting when I joined the guild in 2003 and have been taking just about every class and program offered in order to catch up. The success of our Homespun Christmas in July 2009 has inspired me to have many classes in basics and also artistic techniques—I hope you will agree and participate a lot....I am really excited about the classes and programs!

January 26 - Sue Dixon will be teaching the first program, "Getting Your Quilt Room/Area Organized." Information was in the last newsletter.

February 23 - We have our annual charity sew-in....bring your machine , needles and thread, completed kits, stuffing, etc. and prepare to hit the ground running. I am always amazed at the number of items we finish in one day! Also, this year we are asking for donations of paper (paper towels, tissues, etc.) and cleaning products, toiletries (panty liners, deodorant, shampoo, etc. and ?) that the recipients in the shelters might need.

March 23 - Our own Kinza Pickelsimer will be teaching an appliqué class featuring a Siberian Iris. I have seen her work progress over the last five years, from doing exquisite pieced/hand quilting to discovering appliqué and devoting almost all her time to that art. Hopefully she will have the completed block at the January 26th meeting. The sign up sheet will be available at that time. The cost of the class and materials list will be in the next newsletter.

April 26 - The Singing Quilters are back! And this time, I have booked Cathy Miller for a workshop in the morning - Hexagons Out of the Garden. A little biographical information to refresh your memories....Cathy, a Canadian quilter and folksinger/songwriter from Victoria, B.C., with her musician husband, John Bunge, have, for the last nine years toured with a program of songs, stories and quilts to guilds and quilting events across North America, Australia, New Zealand, The UK and Germany. Cathy is also an accomplished quilt teacher in Hexagons as well as hand and machine appliqué.

Over the last 9 years, Cathy and John have performed at over 500 quilting events for more than 50,000 quilters worldwide. These include appearances

Ripples From Our President

By Linda Quinn

We are fortunate to have so many members willing to share their time, talents, and enthusiasm to help ensure the success of Lake Quilters Guild. The strong leadership and hard work of those who were honored at the December luncheon made 2009 a great year. It's now time to gear up to make sure 2010 is another wonderful year for our guild! Your help is needed. There are still several "vacancies" to be filled. Please let me know if you (or you and a friend) are interested in one of these opportunities to take a more active role in our guild.

Charity Bee: We are all part of this important bee...the talented team of ladies coordinating our efforts needs 2 more people to help with the planning, organizing, and delivery of our charity projects.

Historian: We are fortunate to have a newsletter and web site...we also need someone to collect photos, news articles, and other print material and organize them into a scrapbook/album documenting the many things our guild does.

Publicity: Potential new members often find us through communication in the media. A liaison is needed to pass our program and event information along to the media. The media contact information (email and phone) has already been compiled.

Quilt Retreat: If you have been lucky enough to attend on of our past retreats you know how sad it will be if this tradition does not continue. We need co-chairs and committee members to plan and coordinate the logistics of this fun event.

Each 1 Teach 1: This is a New Position...a coordinator is needed to gather and organize the forms submitted by our members who are willing to share a technique, skill or project. Members who are looking for a learning opportunity will be able to use this "resource bank" to connect with other members who are interested in sharing what they have learned.

There are many exciting things planned. I'm sure you don't want to miss anything...The best way to stay informed about the Programs and Workshops, Block of the Month, Challenge, Charity and "Our Quilted Treasures" is to carefully read the newsletter each month and regularly check our website at <http://www.lakequilters.org>.

I'm looking forward to an awesome year!

At the International Quilt Festival in Houston, the AQS Nashville Show, Eleanor Burns' Quilting Retreat, Ricky Tims La Veta Gallery and on Alex Anderson's TY Program "Simply Quilts." Cathy has also appeared on "The Great Canadian Shop Hop." One of the songs from that show can be seen on You Tube.

To date, Cathy has released four CD's of songs about quilting: "One Stitch at a Time," "A Quilters Embrace". "A Quilters World", and "In the Heart of a Quilt." These songs range from the historical through to the poignant, to the drop-dead funny! This program is sure to entertain and inspire both quilters and non-quilters.

May 18 (Ladies - This is the 3rd Tuesday of the Month) Joanna Lotts, a winner at Hampton, will talk about quilting with wool and many other things Grandbabies here or on the way? Don't miss this meeting!

June 29 - (Ladies This is the 5th Tuesday of the Month.) Bunny Goode will reach us to embellish fabric and turn it into a pocketbook.....more about my friend Bunny later.....

Annual Charity Quilt-In (9 am - 2 pm), February 23, 2010

We need BEARS sewn and ready to stuff. Bears ready to sew will be available at the January meeting. If you have bear kits at home, sew them up! The Charity Committee will be available to help you get working on the project you enjoy doing: Stuffing Bears; Making kits; Quilt As You Go; Sewing Pillow Pals

What to bring: Your lunch and a drink; sewing supplies - needles, thread, pins, scissors, rotary cutter/ruler/mat; stuffing tools (knitting needles, chop sticks)

Fabric Donations gladly accepted!

Gentle Reminder: Finish up the items you took home in 2009!

Be sure to put your name on anything you don't want to lose. See you in February!

Guidelines for Workshops

Workshops are special opportunities for a small group of people (usually only 20) to have instruction from a guest teacher. Please follow these guidelines when signing up for a workshop:

- Sign-up will begin at 12:30 at the Guild meeting in the month announced for the workshop sign-up. Only people who have signed-up AND paid can attend the workshop. You are not considered "signed-up" until you pay your money!
- If you are unable to attend the guild meeting at which the sign-up occurs, have a friend sign you up and pay your money. We will NOT be taking phone sign-ups before this time...Please don't ask us to break this rule.
- Once the workshop is filled, a waiting list will be formed. If someone drops out of the class, the next person on the waiting list will be called. Please do not by-pass the waiting list by selling your spot to a friend. It is not fair to those who have been put on the waiting list.
- Once you are on the list, and find you will be unable to attend, you will not get a refund unless someone is found to take your place. Please call Susan Palmer at 721-5299 as soon as you know you can't come and the next person on the waiting list will be called. If there is no one on the waiting list, you may then find your own replacement.

Challenge Quilt for 2010

A Challenge is: difficulty in an undertaking that is stimulating to the one engage in it.

Theme: "Girls Gotta have Fun"

1. In keeping with recycle, reuse, etc. - This is to be a scrappy quilt.
2. Your own scraps or other quilter's scraps.
3. No single piece in the quilt should be more than a 6 (six) inch square or other shape.
4. In February, March, and April bring a bag of your scraps no larger than 6 (six) inches and no smaller than 1 (one) inch. Please make sure your bags are no larger than a grocery plastic bag. You may bring in bags of your scraps even if you are NOT going to do the challenge. If you plan to participate in this years challenge you may pick up a bag of scraps in these three months. Any left over bags of scraps will be donated to the charity quilts table in May.
5. The maximum size of the quilt is to be a crib size quilt But anything less than that size is equally wonderful!

OK - this is wide open for you creative quilts AND for you traditional quilters! Have fun and use your scraps up so you'll have room for more fabric!

Remember "Girls gotta have fun!"

Lake Quilters Guild
Presents
Our Quilted Treasures
March 26 & 27, 2010

Now that you have the holidays behind you, we hope you are back to sewing. It is getting time to decide which of those lovely quilts, that you have made, you want to enter in the quilt show. We have the registration forms available now and will be giving them out starting at the January meeting. We have had several requests from people outside the guild to be allowed to enter quilts. This is a guild only quilt show. If someone asks, please tell them that we are sorry, but there is just not enough room for us to allow quilts that are not made by guild members. Now if they want to join our guild, then of course, they could enter a quilt. We have flyers, business cards, etc. with the information for our quilt show, that we will be handing out. Please take these to friends, your hair salon, your nail salon or any place you go that will let you leave them for customers.

We need everyone's help getting the word out about our show. We also have the volunteer sign up sheets available. So check your calendars and see which days you will be able to help. On Thursday, March 25, we need structural set up which also includes husbands. We can't do it without them, so promise to cook for them in exchange for helping with the quilt show. Also on Thursday we will need people to hang the quilts. We promise to feed you lunch for all your efforts. Friday and Saturday, we need the white glove ladies and we would like a couple people in each of the bee display rooms at all times, just for security. This is a great opportunity to catch up on some of your hand work and talk to the many visitors about all we do at the guild. Each bee will have a table for their displays in the two rooms down the hall as well as the charity display. This will allow the opportunity for all the things you have quilted that is not a quilt or wearable such as totes, purses, pillows, etc. You all did a great job with this last show so I know you will be trying to top that effort.

Don't forget we still need door prizes. Give your quilted gifts to Katherine Lewis that we will use for the show door prizes. If you have quilting or sewing items you are donating, then give those to us. We are going to give those items as our volunteer prizes at the April meeting. We know that with everyone's help, that this show will be even better than the last one. Any questions you may have, do not hesitate to ask either of us.

January 2010 Featured Bee:
SHADY LADIES BEE

By Chris Patane

The Shady Ladies Bee has been in existence for a number of years. Some time ago (historically), one bee had grown too large (with a wide spectrum in levels of experiences well) so the Hardy and Shady Ladies Bees were created as two separate bees. In more recent years, and, at present, the Shady Ladies Bee focuses on beginning quilting.

In any given year, beginner quilter's have joined this Bee to find the mentor, Eileen Gore, and other members to be extremely helpful in either teaching the basics and/or sharing experiences. What's also great about this Bee is even though some of the members are no longer considered to be "beginners," everyone learns new projects, patterns, and/or techniques from scratch-to-finish together.

Sometimes Eileen Gore picks out "mystery" projects...she takes the bee members through stages of the project, step-by-step each month. Other times, members express interest in a specific project/pattern. Last Fall, the group designated a meeting to exchange ideas and show examples of various Christmas gift items.

Members of this group are very open and friendly. There is a lot sharing and laughter. Oh, yes, there's praise and support, too. Member have gone beyond "just" a meeting by bringing in their finished projects (to show), UFO's to get advise and humorous stories of their frustrations...you know, ripping something out umpteen times.....

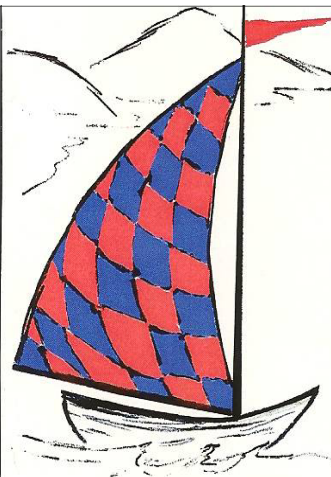

The Shady Ladies meet the first Monday of each month, from 1:30 to 3:30 pm at Margaret Harman's or Jan Hagen's home. Members are Eileen Gore, Margaret Harman, Jan Hagen, Katherine Lewis, Betty Lou Cooper, Sue Dittler, Barbara Lees, Chris Patane, Hallie Ruedi, Jackie Hodgson and Carolyn Smith
