. November 27, 2012 1pm—Patty Powers: Fiber Art Lecture/Trunk Show
 Patty is proof that quilting brings together people of many differing interests and backgrounds. Google her and you will find her listed as a Pediatrician and Pediatric Endocrinologist, as well as Fiber Artist and Art Quilter. She lists her interests as surface design, gardening, and hiking. She combines traditional quilt structures with modern techniques and materials, using color to explore the symbols she incorporates into her work. Visit galleries in Lynchburg and Bedford to see her work or go to www.brookside.blogspot.com to see just how "frame worthy" her quilt art is! Her artistry will take your breath away.

December 11, 2012 Annual Holiday Luncheon, Waterfront Country Club

12:00 Lunch will be served, followed by awarding prizes to challenge winners and an exchange of handmade ornaments.

For your convenience, the membership committee will be accepting your 2013 dues ($25 cash or check payable to Lake Quilters Guild/LQG) at the Annual Holiday Luncheon. Look for Kathy or Bonnie before entering the dining room. Fill out the attached membership renewal form and bring it with you.

Congratulations, Lucy Ricardo, winner of First Prize in the Virginia Quilt Museum's Christmas ornament contest! After showing us how to make the lovely yo-yo ornaments in our July Homespun program, Lucy sent one of her ornaments to the museum and took first prize. Visitors to the gift shop voted on their favorite ornament and Lucy's was number one. We are so happy for Lucy and let's follow her example in supporting our state's quilt museum.

THANKSGIVING THOUGHTS

We will have celebrated Thanksgiving before you read this and we are approaching the holiday season at a rapid pace. There are so many things to be thankful for and being in this beautiful place is one.

I'm thankful for the willing help given by many guild members. If I have asked, you have cheerfully said yes. The coming year won't be much different as we are a volunteer organization and without your help we could not function.

I'm thankful for the many educational and fun programs we've had this year; January, Jill Setchel and Klassy Kitchens; our charity sew-in in February produced 128 bears, 36 pillow pals, and 4 quilts; in March Karen Carter showed us how to sparkle up fabric photo frames; April brought our own Cindy Clark and the expandable tote; also in April Vicki Seekford and Lori Suon headed our wonderful quilt show, "Quilting, The Thread of Life"; Shashiko was our May program by Marianne Beeson; in June Lori Clayton demonstrated the many ways to use a ruler; July Homespun spotlighted Guild talent, Linda Brown, Sue Dittler, Sandy Miller, Lucy Ricardo, and Carole Thommen; in August Madge Ziegler took us on a appliqué trip around the world; in September Karen DuMont taught braid parade; October brought back Sue Wilson with some more Cotton Theory. This month we're looking forward to Patty Powers' lecture about Fiber Arts.

I want to thank Teena Livsey, Sharon Reilly, Marnie Brush, and Joyce Noell as they step down from their board positions. The induction of new board members, Second Vice President for Programs: Becky Linkous and Denise Pilversack; Secretary: Donna Kittelson; and Treasurer: Dawn Saunders will be held at our meeting this month.

If you haven't done it yet, please sign up at this month's meeting for our Christmas luncheon (December 11). There are also some spots left for our Retreat in April.

Hope the turkey was tasty and the family and friends you celebrated with brought much joy. Dottie

Lake Quilters' Retreat, April 5-7, 2013, Charlottesville, VA

We are getting geared up for our quilt retreat and we have room for 4 to 6 more people. If you would like to go, see Sue Palmer at the November meeting. Registration forms are available on the web site. You will need a $50 deposit when you register.

Karen DuMont, whom we all enjoyed at the September meeting, will be teaching Party on the Block on Saturday. It is really a beautiful quilt, with only one block to make. It is pretty when done with scraps and left-overs, so this is a good chance to whittle down that stash. We will have smaller projects on Friday afternoon and Sunday morning. These are things that can be finished at the retreat, so you won't have UFO's to take home.

We are planning a bunch of surprises and wonderful door prizes as well. Come and join us for a fun weekend.

Sue, Helen, and Sandra

Guidelines for Workshops

Workshops are special opportunities for a small group of people (usually only 20) to have instruction from a guest teacher. Please follow these guidelines when signing up for a workshop:

- Sign-up will begin at 12:30 at the Guild meeting in the month announced for the workshop sign-up. Only people who have signed-up AND paid can attend the workshop. You are not considered "signed-up" until you pay your money!
- If you are unable to attend the guild meeting at which the sign-up occurs, have a friend sign you up and pay your money. We will NOT be taking phone sign-ups before this time...Please don't ask us to break this rule.
- Once the workshop is filled, a waiting list will be formed. If someone drops out of the class, the next person on the waiting list will be called. Please do not by-pass the waiting list by selling your spot to a friend. It is not fair to those who have been put on the waiting list.
- Once you are on the list, and find you will be unable to attend, you will not get a refund unless someone is found to take your place. Please call Teena Livsey (576-2031) or Sharon Reilly (297-1926) as soon as you know you can't come and the next person on the waiting list will be called. If there is no one on the waiting list, you may then find your own replacement.

CHARITY BEE HAPPENINGS LETTER FROM MARLYN

FEATURED BEE

Sunshine Bee

We meet on the first Thursday of the month at the home of Cindy Clark. Our members are Pat Blice, Donna Broomhall, Cindy Clark, Nancee Costello, Joyce Disbrow, Stephanie Novak, Cindy Okeson, Sharon Reilly, Ann Spangler, Dale Stellhorn and Carole Thommen.

This year we were busy bees, working on the 1600 strip quilt, a handy purse, placemats using for fat quarters, a table runner, and six charity quilts. Our May meeting was a fun road trip with a stop for lunch.

Each month a member will share a tip of the month: something they have learned, or a tool they have found to make quilting easy and even more fun. We learn from each other and enjoy the art of quilting.

Editor's note: I'm still having trouble with certain picture files. I will attach a great picture of the Sunshine Bee ladies to the newsletter instead of wrestling with it any further.

To join an existing bee, start a new one, or to update your bee information and sign up for a month to display, please contact:
