Membership News

WELCOME to new members
Bev Seaver, Jane Strike and Linda Leedy!

- Membership cards are available at every meeting. Some local shops give discounts to Guild members so this is handy to have in your pocketbook.
- Name tags are essential when meeting and greeting fellow Guild members, and it's only 25¢ for a stick-on at the meeting if you leave yours at home.
- HINT of the MONTH! Always keep your sewing machine/serger/iron UN-PLUGGED when not in use. With our sudden summer storms, lightning appears out of nowhere and could do untold damage to your equipment.

PINEAPPLE FABRICS IN HIGH POINT, NC PURCHASES KEEPSAKE QUILTING

Due to the generosity of Pineapple Fabrics, we were able to share in some of their excitement at the May guild meeting. They have successfully purchased Keepsake Quilting and completed their first product catalogue. The owners gave us three door prizes, which were won by Jackie Hodgson, Kate Holdgreve and Betty Reynolds. Congratulations ladies. (Submitted by Sue Wilson)

Would You Like to Be in a Bee?

By Kate Holdgreve, Beekeeper

kdholdgreve@gmail.com

Bees are subsets of the guild. It is an opportunity to be a part of a smaller group of quilters who share the same quilting interests as you. Maybe it's Art Quilts or Traditional quilts. Perhaps it's making charity quilts or learning new techniques. The Bee becomes a great bevy of friends who "get you" and can give you all of kinds of support. If you are interested in joining a group or starting one, please let me know and we will see what we can do. We have 8 active bees and most of them are full but starting a new one is always encouraged and welcomed. Bees usually meet at least once a month. Often the meetings take place in each other's homes for 4 or 5 hrs. and may include lunch. The one I belong to meets twice a month from 9:30-3 and we bring our own lunch.

Currently, our bees take turns displaying their projects at the monthly guild meetings. They are also responsible for helping to set up and take down tables and or chairs for the Guild meeting which I've noticed lately doesn't seem to be a daunting task. If you have any ideas regarding how to best showcase,
