

LAKE QUILTERS NEWS

April 2024

A WORD (OR TWO) FROM OUR PRESIDENT

What a year 2024 has already been! It's fantastic to return to the lake and see Spring has really sprung! I love coming home to the forsythia, daffodils, redbuds, and now the tulips in bloom— And chartreuse (spring) green – seen everywhere as the leaves pop out – is maybe one of my favorite colors! Virginia is truly for Lovers of spring!!

I find all this color to be very motivating. While the soft whites, grays and blues of the winter season are inspiring in their own rite, there's nothing quite like yellow and lavender popping out to make me feel energized and ready to get out and moving ...And loving the bright colors of Kaffe and Tula like I do, the spring colors outside make me want to comb through my stash inside for new projects – There's no shortage of ideas about this time of year!

Warm afternoons and longer days mean people are emerging from their winter hibernation too. Friends are returning to SML after winter travels. Smiles and friendly greetings abound around us and opportunities to get out and socialize are plentiful. What better way to reconnect with friends and be energized than to volunteer, especially right here with Lake Quilters Guild!

The 2024 Raffle Quilt ticket sales committee has lined up opportunities to display our beautiful quilt and sell tickets in several locations in the community. All that's needed is people (YOU) to sign up to sit and sell! I see this as a great chance to sit with a friend of two, sip a tea or cup of coffee, catch up and chat quilting while selling tickets to shoppers – Sounds like fun to me so why are they struggling to get members to sign up and support the guild's activities in this way? What am I missing?

Another great chance to get together with quilting friends is our upcoming show! The 2024 Quilt Show Committee activity has really ramped up! With the show less than two months away now – opportunities to sign up and help are plentiful. Listen and watch for ways to help out and be involved.

No great team (Yeah baseball season is back!) succeeds on the efforts of just one person – and a great quilt guild is no different. It takes all of us to make LQG great – so come out of your winter hibernation and get involved. Everyone will be so glad you did!
Can't wait to see you at the Guild!

SUNSHINE UPDATE

Happy or sad, please request a card from the guild for any member by either texting or phoning Ruthe at 203-645-7030 or emailing her at rploskunyak@outlook.com. We all like to know that our LQG members are thinking of us.

In March we sent greetings to Sue Whitney following her multiple hospital visits. We also sent a wish for speedy recovery to Ann Flaherty following her I-81 accident transporting the Kid Comfort Quilt Workshop quilts.

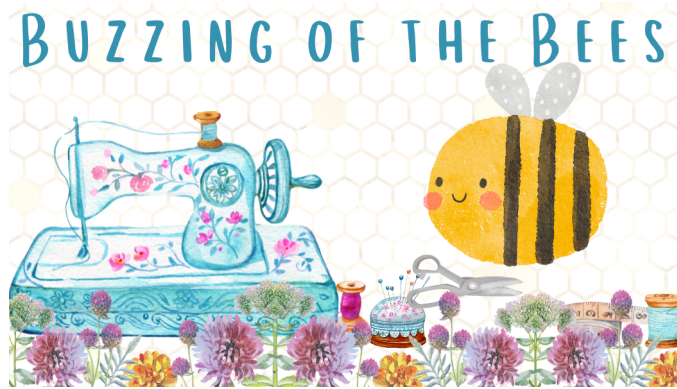

IDEA OF THE MONTH

I can not believe that the quilt show is less than two months away. I hope everyone is working on items for the boutique. I want to thank Patti Lively, Jackie McKeown, Marian Serge and Carole Thommen for presenting project ideas. If you need any of the patterns, please reach out to me and I will get a copy to you.

This month Carole Thommen will be showing a hexagon table topper. This type item usually sells very well at church craft fairs.

CHARITY REPORT

March 2024

Many thanks to Joanne Houpt for donating a cutting mat, a small container of fabric, and 4 rolls of upholstery material.

We plan to work on cutting the upholstery material for Walker bags during the May 16th Cutting Party at the Moneta/SML Library. We'll also be assembling kits for Charity quilts and cutting fabric to be used for Charity quilts. The fun starts around 10 am and goes until 4 pm – hope to see you there. There will be a sign-up sheet at the April 16th Guild Meeting

We had the following items donated at the March Guild Meeting:

- 1 Honor Quilt (quilted and ready for delivery)
- 3 Oversize Lap / Twin Quilts (1 is ready for delivery and the others need to be quilted)

These items will be included in the donations to hospice speakers at both the May and June meetings.

As a reminder, we have volunteers who make the Charity deliveries; however, If you deliver any quilts or quilt items, please be sure to complete the LQG Charity Delivery Form and provide it to Cheryl Nylund so that she is able to accurately track all donated items. The form may be found on www.lakequilters.org under the Community Service tab.

QUILT SHOW 2024 June 6 & 7

Quilt Show 2024
Quilts For All Seasons

Volunteer Sign-Ups for Our Show start NOW!

Working the Quilt Show, whether it is for a 2-hour shift, half a day or an entire day or two is not only a fun time, but also a great bonding opportunity with your fellow guild members! Each member is expected to volunteer for at least one shift and there's sure to be a task you'd enjoy doing whether it's staffing the Welcome Table to greet our guests, White glove while walking around sharing our lovely quilts with our guests or assist in raising funds for the Guild's community projects by selling Boutique merchandise, or tickets for the Raffle quilt and baskets. And, of course who could resist the fun of setting up and taking down at the end of two busy days!

Sign Up sheets will be available at all Guild meetings. Sign up early and pick the shift you want.

Quilt Item Submissions for Lake Quilters Guild Members Only

The decision to limit our show participation to "guild members only" was made by the Board this week. This policy is a natural extension to our primary guiding principle that Our Show is to highlight our Guild. If we have friends who want to exhibit with us, please remind them that they have the option to join our Guild.

We have received 24 quilt submissions so far. Please remember to fill out all the form fields. That information is needed for sizing, and also to type the cards that will be displayed with each quilt. I have to admit that at each guild meeting over the last 18 months, I have enjoyed show and tell thinking "That will look great at Our Show!" Please send us your submissions earlier rather than later.

Submit Your Items!

How: A separate form and photo is required for each quilt or functional item. Forms and the category definitions are posted on the website. We also supply printed copies at each Guild

Who: send to Karen Taylor karentaylor51@gmail.com 1165 Ascend Lane Huddleston, VA 24104

When: All quilt entries are due by April 16th

Do you want to sell your quilt? For those of you who are considering sales, we've created a process to support you. Quilts that are for sale will be hung with all the other quilts. Therefore, you need to submit the registration form to Karen. On the form, there is a place to indicate the sales price of the quilt. We'll include that price on the wall tag located by your quilt. When someone wants to purchase the quilt, they will bring a picture of the quilt tag to the Boutique and we will ring up the sale at the Boutique register. The seller will receive 75% of the sales price and the guild will retain the 25% consignment fee. The quilt maker will receive notice on the day of the sale that their quilt sold. Payments from our Treasurer will happen within 30 days after the Show. The sold quilt cannot be removed until after Our Show. Future pick up arrangements will be made at the time of payment with the buyer and a Quilt Show representative.

DEFINITION OF CATEGORIES provided for your quick reference (also listed on the website):

Appliqué - appliqué work (hand, machine, computerized) must be predominant (at least 50%) over other techniques in amount and effect.

Modern – primarily functional quilts that emphasize and complement modern style. Common features of modern quilting may include bold piecing utilizing modern fabrics, high contrast and graphic areas, improvisational piecing, minimalism, maximalism, lack of borders, expansive negative space, modern traditionalism, and alternate grid work. Quilting often enhances the graphic nature of the quilt top with quilting designs used in different and unexpected ways.

Traditional - inspired by our quilting heritage focusing on excellence in construction and design using traditional quilt blocks.

Art Quilts – an original quilted design exploring a concept or idea, rather than a commercial pattern, and created for artistic display. Unusual techniques that are “outside the box” of traditional quilting may be incorporated; i.e., innovative application of dyes and paints, digital imagery, experimental textures and stitchery, and the use of various fibers and embellishments. Design styles include abstract, portrait, landscape and themed images often originating from the artists' beliefs and emotions. Made and quilted by entrant.

Functional Quilted Items – quilted wearables (adorns the body), purses/totes, home décor such as pillows and table runners.

Miniature – must be a scaled down version of a full-sized quilt. No side larger than 24 inches and if blocks are used they may be no larger than four inches.

Boutique Donations

Please continue to bring your donations to our monthly guild meetings. You will see Cindy and friends set up to collect & tag items. It's exciting to watch our inventory grow. We've collected over 50 items since the February guild meeting!

LQG BOARD MEETING MINUTES – April 2, 2024

ATTENDEES:

- Joy Shannahan - President
- Fran Strumph – Secretary, Raffle Quilt
- Arlene Blackburn – President-elect
- Gail McCord – Quilt Show
- Jan Emerick-Brothers – Past President
- Flo Hayes – Programs
- Jan Brockman – Newsletter (by phone)
- Judy Edgeworth – Bee Keeper

Thank you to Jan Emerick-Brothers and others for covering for Joy while she was away.

Treasurer's Report

Veronica was unable to be at the meeting, but sent her report. Available funds to LQG are $11,209.53.

Operation Kid Comfort – Arlene Blackburn

- Thank you, Arlene, for organizing this successful event.
- All quilts have been delivered.
- Approximately 25 Guild members participated and about 20 people from outside guilds.
- Pre-cut kits really helped streamline the process and productivity.

Charity – Jan Emerick-Brothers

- There really needs to be a person manning the charity table at all meetings.

Quilt Show 2024 – Gail McCord

- Boutique is going well; Lyn Coleman has agreed to help with the Boutique.
- There is a lack of confidence in the pricing, but the committee has proposed a “pricing party”, with a few people who have experience pricing these types of items.
- Cindy Holland is in charge of getting volunteers for the show – there will be a big push to do this very soon.
- In addition to all the other events going on at the lake the weekend of the show, it is the 80th anniversary of D Day, and the show committee is hoping to draw some of those attendees to the show with signage and perhaps have a small display of patriotic quilts.
- All area Guilds have been notified of our show, and other advertising in the works.
- At the Joyous Junque sale, plans are to display quilts on each of the pay station tables with information about the show.
- At the A Day at the Lake event, the show committee is trying to coordinate with them to advertise our show.
- The donated quilts shown at last month's guild meeting will be raffled/auctioned off in 2025.
- There will be a new category at this year's show: the Group quilt, which means The quilt show has created a new category called “Group” quilts. This category is defined as
 - o 2 or more sources / makers contributing to the quilt top
 - o A least one contributor of the top must be a Guild member
 - o Contributing sources could include purchased or handmade components from non-members
 - o The quilter does not have to be one of the top makers but could be a third party.
- Vendors – there will probably not be the 6 we had hoped for, but that is okay. So far, we have Fork Mtn Quilting, a wallet maker, a jewelry booth, and possibly Tupperware.

Raffle Quilt Sales - Fran

- We have sold 1916 tickets as of 3/19/24, and have a net income of $1271.49.
- We need more people to sign up for shifts at Kroger – we've had some sign ups, but need to fill some time slots. Judy Edgeworth will contact each bee and ask them to get volunteers.
- Fran will make a bigger visual – a chart showing where our needs are.

Membership

- Bev was unable to be here.
- There are 65 members renewed, including 7 businesses.
- Bev created the committee list for Fran. We will ask Bev to look over the membership forms and see if people expressed an interest in joining one of the committees.

Programs – Flo

- Nadine's purse workshop went well, and netted $55 ($5 per person).
- Mary Kerr workshop for April is cancelled but she will give the program at the Guild meeting on the 16th. She will stay with Joy.
- The programs in May and June are representatives from two charities that we support.
- June is also the show month.
- July's program will be Fellowship Day.

Job Descriptions – Joy

- After everyone has revised their job descriptions and send to Joy in digital format, she and Arlene will review.

CORE – Jan Emerick-Brothers

- Jan has collected $60 from participants in this weekend's retreat at the Saunders Fire Hall. The rental of the space is $150, so there will likely be a loss.
- Fall bus trip: Jan has contacted bus companies and has decided on one out of Lynchburg. The total bus cost will be $2400 and the total VA Quilt Museum tour and behind the scenes tour is $300. The trip will be on September 14th, a Saturday, and we would need a minimum of 34 people attending (there is a maximum of 54-56). Friends and others interested may also attend. There will be a stop on the way home at Patchwork Plus for some shopping. Money is due to the bus company 30 prior to departure date, no deposit required. We will need to charge approximately $100 per person for the day. Fran made a motion to go ahead with this plan, and Arlene seconded, it passed unanimously.

Newsletter – Jan Brockman by phone

- There were formatting issues with February's and March's newsletters, and it was difficult to email it.
- We need a committee and a back-up for Jan, to address these issues and to make a plan for the newsletter.
- Jan will investigate the problem with a librarian from Moneta Library to see if she has any ideas and suggestions to fix the problem.
- Deadline this month for the newsletter is April 12.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:25pm. Our next board meeting is on May 7 at the Moneta library.

Come visit us to find a little bit of everything and a lot of name-brand quilter's cottons and 108" wide backing fabric. Shop the other half of our store to find homemade bakery items made here in our kitchen with time tried recipes. Don't forget to show your material purchase card. You receive one punch for every $20 worth of fabric in one visit.

We have ready made dinners-just heat and serve.
